

Psy515 quiz 4 past

1) Who developed DSM?

Select the correct option

British Psychological Association

American Psychiatric Association

American Psychological Association

World Health Organization

2) According to Islam, one can't marry his sister. This is known as what?

Select the correct option

- a) Mesogamy

~~- b) Exogamy~~

- c) Endogamy

- d) Microgamy

3) Which family type consists of two generations, parents and children?

Select the correct option

- a) Nuclear family

- b) Stem family

- c) Joint family

- d) One parent family

4) Prince of Wales is a title of which of the following kingdoms?

Select the correct option

- a) America
- b) KSA
- c) Britain
- d) France

5) Which perspective claims that intergenerational dependences should decrease and separation within the family should increase with socio-economic development?

Select the correct option

- a) Modernization
- b) Individualism

- c) Urbanization

- d) Socialism

6) The functions of the family were considered to be:

Select the correct option

- a) Reproduction and economy

- b) Anatomy, behavior, and attitudes

- c) Socialization and association

- d) Reproduction, socialization, and economy

7) _____ death is said to be non-dramatic, disciplined, and with very little emotion.

Select the correct option

Acceptable

Good

Reasonable

Lavish

8) What type of relation means relationship with uncles and aunts, cousins, nephews and niece?

Select the correct option

Affinal

Collateral

Lineal

Effinal

9) In which of the following country, a single child inherited the property and a father could disinherit his son if he was not worthy and adopt a young man who inherited the property

Select the correct option

Japan

Pakistan

Iraq

Iran

10) In which of the following society of Nigeria, people likely to live in multi generational households?

Select the correct option

Collectivist

Individualist

Unicultural

Bicultural

11) In terms of authority structure, the patriarchal and matriarchal families are consists of at least how many generations?

Select the correct option

3

2

4

5

12) Who made a distinction between an “acceptable death” and a “good death”?

Select the correct option

Shakespeare

Van Gennp

Counts and Counts

Kellahear

- 13) In which type of grief the person inhibits, suppresses or postpones her grief at the time of loss but later on it appears as an excessive reaction to a subsequent loss or other triggering events

Select the correct option

Delayed

Soled

Shattered

Disenfranchised

14) Islam permitted four wives at a time, this is an example of which type of family?

Select the correct option

Polygynous

Nuclear

 Extended

Monogamous